

PUBLISHING ARTICLES OPEN ACCESS AS A UT AUTHOR

UT authors must make all their publications Open Access (OA), preferably immediately with a licence for re-use.

In all cases, UT-affiliated publications must be open at the latest six months after the first publication date.

Visit the UT Journal Browser to find journals in your field and their OA options

Does your funder require you to publish OA?

Check the requirements on Sherpa/Juliet.

Is the journal of your choice trustworthy?

Use the checklist on Think. Check. Submit.

Can you publish OA in the journal of your choice?

In the UT Journal Browser, I see:

You automatically publish OA in this journal.

YES

In the UT Journal Browser, I see:

You can choose to publish OA in this journal.

YES

In the UT Journal Browser, I see:

Open Access support unknown

Click on the journal's title and then on Journal Home Page to find out.

YES

NO

Can you cover the cost of OA publishing in this journal?

I see: 100% APC discount for UT authors

Click on the journal's title to check the requirements for the discount. In any case, use your utwente email address and affiliation when you submit your article to the journal.

YES

I see: Probably no APC costs

Click on the journal's title and then on Journal Home Page to double-check:

YES

I see: APC costs unknown

NO

I see: Full APC costs for UT authors (no discount)

I see: 10% / 15% / 20% APC discount for UT authors

YES

NO

Will OA publishing be free of charge for you?

Will your funder, faculty (BMS) or research group pay?

Will you automatically publish OA in this journal?

Do you want to publish OA immediately?

YES

NO

Find another journal in the UT Journal Browser

YES

NO

Transfer copyrights to the publisher.

Your article is published behind a paywall on the journal's website.

Always upload the final published version of your article to Pure.

Optional: Also upload the accepted author version, if the publisher allows you to make that version open in Pure within six months.

If there is no open version in Pure yet, the University Library will make the final published version openly available after six months, unless you opt out.

You and others are allowed to share your article according to the terms of the CC licence.

Your article is published OA on the journal's website.

Always upload the final published version of your article to Pure.

You and others are allowed to share your article according to the terms of the CC licence.

Your article is openly available in UT Research Information.

You and others are not allowed to share your article without permission of the publisher. Link to UT Research Information instead.

Your article is openly available in UT Research Information.

More information: www.utwente.nl/openaccess Questions? open-access@utwente.nl

WE'LL GLADLY HELP YOU

UNIVERSITY OF TWENTE.